

Hi Carol,

I received an email from the Karaites saying that they had four volunteers for the search for the abib this year. They also explained why they believe that we need to find the earliest possible barley grain from Jerusalem [Dt. 16:1]. Cool stuff - huh? I wish I could be there also, but domestic duty [and finances] calls - heh-heh! I hope that Michael S. and those others will be safe during their search. We all need to keep that in our prayers for the next couple of weeks.

Well, the emails from Diana and Teresa have come to a conclusion [finally] and discernments have been made [see copies of most recent of the series at bottom of this email]. You're probably relieved - heh-heh! I can;t imagine what it's like for an outside person to walk into the middle of a Lacey conversation ... it just must seem absurd to an extent - ha! So, ...

Sharon and I will be observing the Passover Memorial at mom and dad Lacey's, Diana and Teresa will be having Passover at Diana's house with some guests that are already invited. First and Last Days of ULB could be a mix of locations by reason of the recent disapproval and rejection on Diana and Teresa's behalf of the topics of Bible Versions, deception and great impostures. All that started with articles about USA and Babylon type stuff.

I'll not bore you with any more about those matters since you all have probably done much study on these topics yourselves. Suffice it to say the Spirit bears witness of itself [Rom. 8:16].

So ends the string of emails before Passover 2002. Sharon and I hope all is well and that you all have a wonderful spring Holy Days.

Bye,

David
